Megan H. Tinker
Assistant Inspector General
Office of Audit Services, Office of Inspector General
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Megan Tinker is Assistant Inspector General for the Office of Audit Services, in the Office of Inspector General, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Ms. Tinker is responsible for providing executive level direction and leadership on issues involving Medicare Part C, Medicare Part D, and issues dealing with drugs and drug pricing in HHS programs. Previously, Ms. Tinker was Senior Advisor for Legal Affairs and advised the OIG on jurisdiction and oversight issues under the IG Act, and health care fraud and compliance matters, including Medicaid, Medicare and grant programs.

Ms. Tinker has testified before Congress, and spoken to the Health Care Compliance Association, Association of Government Accountants, Association of Healthcare Internal Auditors, and American Health Lawyers Association. Ms. Tinker is also a guest lecturer at the American University, Washington College of Law, Health Law Program. Ms. Tinker graduated cum laude from American University, Washington College of Law and with honors from University of Richmond.