

Leadership Challenge

Frequently Ask Questions

Q: What is the Leadership Challenge?

A: Inspiring more than 300 AHLA leaders and volunteers, in over 36 groups, to support the Association's educational mission by achieving 100% participation in giving.

Q: What do I have to do in order to participate in the Leadership Challenge?

A: All you need to do is make a charitable donation by visiting <https://my.americanhealthlaw.org/Shop/Donate> or <https://www.americanhealthlaw.org/Donate>. Then don't forget to spread the word and encourage others to join you in support of AHLA's mission.

Q: How is my donation used?

A: Your tax-deductible donation ensures there is a well-qualified next generation of health law professionals, by providing the practical skills and experience to provide analysis, assess risk, ensure compliance, and make recommendations to their organizations and clients on best practices.

Q: If I have already donated in this calendar year, does my donation get included in this Challenge?

A: All donations made between June 1, 20XX – May 31, 20YY is included in the totals.

Q: Do I have to participate?

A: Your participation is of course optional and voluntary. We encourage every leader to participate at the level they are comfortable, to help your group reach 100% participation.

Q: Who do I contact if I have more questions about the Leadership Challenge?

A: The Chair of your group is a great place to start. Robert Taflinger is AHLA's Senior Director of Membership & Development who is happy to answer any questions and can be reached at rtaflinger@americanhealthlaw.org.
