AMERICAN HEALTH LAW ASSOCIATION

2026-2027 Health Law Education

In-Person | Virtual | On Demand

Gain a Competitive Edge

americanhealthlaw.org/Education

2026-2027 Educational Offerings

02 In-Person Conferences

- Tax Issues for Health Care Organizations
- Fraud and Compliance Forum
  + Virtual Participation
- Fundamentals of Health Law

AHLA's 2027 Winter Institute
Co-located In-Person + Virtual

- Advising Providers: Legal Strategies for AMCs, Physicians, and Hospitals
- The Complexities of AI in Health Care

- Long Term and Post-Acute Care Law and Compliance
- Institute on Medicare and Medicaid Payment Issues
- Health Care Transactions
- In-House Counsel Program
- Annual Meeting

Save $50 on In-Person Conference Registration
Use code MEETING27 by April 30, 2027.
Registration information inside.

10 Online Learning

AHLA's online educational portfolio is designed to suit a variety of learning preferences and features content to help you flourish in a complex industry.

Virtual Conferences

- NEW! Antitrust in Health Care
- Health Care Arbitration Training
- In-House Counsel Training

On-Demand ePrograms
AHLA 101 Courses
Webinars: Live & On Demand

Premier Health Law Education

Learn from Prestigious Speakers

From industry to government, AHLA speakers are trusted experts who represent the full spectrum of the health law industry and deliver the gold-standard in health law education.

Elevate Your Networking

AHLA conferences gather the brightest minds in health law and offer the perfect setting to create professional relationships that can support you through every phase of your career.

Leverage On-Demand Recordings

Catch up on sessions you may have missed, refresh your knowledge, and earn additional continuing education credits on your schedule. Registered conference attendees receive on-demand recordings at no additional cost.

Earn Continuing Education Credits

As the premier provider of continuing education for the health law profession, AHLA is uniquely positioned to provide you with all the Compliance Certification Board (CCB), Continuing Legal Education (CLE), and Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credits you need.

Flexible Participation

Virtual Conference Options

AHLA now offers virtual registration for select conferences. Virtual participants enjoy live session streaming and interactive Q&A from anywhere, while in-person attendees benefit from networking opportunities and exhibitor interactions. All registrants receive free session recordings and can design their personal curriculum addressing today's evolving health care legal landscape.

"In terms of developing your career, building your level of expertise, and building your network AHLA is really an incredible opportunity that you shouldn't pass up."

— Sandy Teplitzky
Senior Counsel,
Baker Donelson

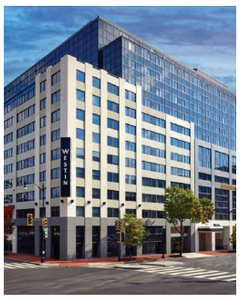

Fraud and Compliance Forum

September 23–24, 2026 |
Washington, DC & Virtual

Two days of thoughtfully developed presentations will cover the full spectrum of fraud and compliance challenges facing health care advisors today:

- Hear directly from former DOJ and OIG insiders on the fraud and abuse trends reshaping the health care landscape
- Understand how artificial intelligence is transforming documentation, coding, audits, and government enforcement — and what your organization must do now
- Actionable strategies across FCA, AKS, Stark, Medicare Advantage, cybersecurity, and more
- Sessions designed for attorneys, compliance professionals, and executives navigating today's high-stakes regulatory environment

Registration Details

Early Registration Saving | Register by September 16 to save $200.

Continuing Education Credits | CLE, CCB, and CPE credits will be available.

The Westin DC Downtown

americanhealthlaw.org/Fraud

Tax Issues for Health Care Organizations

September 10–11, 2027 |
Washington, DC

This conference is designed to meet the needs of in-house tax counsel, CFOs, general counsel, compliance officers, and outside advisors serving nonprofit hospitals and health systems. In addition to tax-exempt status and executive compensation, sessions cover the impact of the Loper Bright decision, Medicaid financing reform, property tax exemption scrutiny, joint venture planning, community benefit reporting, and more.

americanhealthlaw.org/Tax

Fundamentals of Health Law

November 1–3, 2026 | Chicago, IL

This conference is the ideal educational opportunity for advisors and advocates new to the health care law industry, as well as for experienced counselors seeking a comprehensive refresher.

Sessions will cover:

- Policy developments and industry outlook
- Medicare basics, covering Parts A through D
- Medicaid fundamentals
- Primers on the federal health care fraud and abuse laws
- Legal considerations unique to health care business transactions
- Sessions on advising specific types of health care entities like behavioral health entities, physician groups, hospitals, and others
- And more from presenters of experienced industry advisors

Registration Details

Early Registration Saving | Register by October 9 to save $200.

Continuing Education Credits | CLE, CCB, and CPE credits will be available..

Swissôtel Chicago

americanhealthlaw.org/Fundamentals

"This experience has been a turning point for me. I left the conference feeling more confident in my ability to take on the legal issues health care providers face and more inspired about how I can make a difference in this industry."

— Caila Wagar
Barnes & Thornburg LLP

"The time and energy you put into AHLA you get back tenfold through unmatched education and camaraderie. I've made connections that will last a lifetime."

— Lindsay Holmes
Amazon.com Inc

In-Person Conferences

2027 WINTER INSTITUTE

Two Conferences, One Location + Virtual Option

AHLA's 2027 Winter Institute brings together two essential conferences in Las Vegas Feb 22-24. In-person attendees access sessions across both Advising Providers and AI in Health Care with a single registration. Build your personalized agenda. Access all recordings post-event.

Virtual attendees register for each conference individually. This streamlined approach maximizes your educational opportunities—explore AI compliance in the morning and provider strategies in the afternoon, or focus deeply on one track.

Advising Providers: Legal Strategies for AMCs, Physicians, and Hospitals

February 22–24, 2027 |
Las Vegas, NV & Virtual

In just two and a half days, get up to speed on a whole host of regulatory, compliance, business, and other strategic and risk areas that concern your physician, hospital, and health system clients.

Whether you advise academic medical centers/ teaching hospitals, physicians, or hospitals and health systems, you will collect real-world takeaways related to:

- Health Care Technology and Information
- Payment and Reimbursement
- Transactions
- Fraud and abuse
- Clinical Research
- Graduate Medical Education
- Medical Staff and Peer Review
- And More

americanhealthlaw.org/AdvisingProviders

"AHLA definitely makes sure that you have the best of the best who are presenting and publishing and speaking... Everyone knows that people come to AHLA not only for the camaraderie, but also for the content. So, it has to be on point, and it also has to be timely."

— Ritu Cooper
Shareholder, Hall Render

The Complexities of AI in Health Care

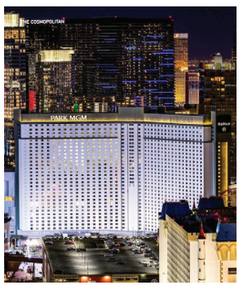

February 22–24, 2027 |
Las Vegas, NV & Virtual

Find out what tools, strategies, and resources are working (and not working) for your fellow attendees, so that you can more efficiently and effectively advise your own health care clients or health care systems.

Presenters will address the topics your governing boards and clients will be asking. Coverage will address questions such as:

- How is AI currently regulated and where are the gaps?
- What steps are necessary to protect privacy at data collection and beyond?
- How are providers using AI and what are the implications?
- What strategies can help mitigate risk before, during, and after AI implementation?

Registration Details

Early Registration Saving | Register by January 22, 2027 to save $200.

Continuing Education Credits | CLE, CCB, and CPE credits will be available for both conferences.

The Reserve at Park MGM

americanhealthlaw.org/ArtificialIntelligence

"A lot of the [value] is getting to know your colleagues in the industry on a national basis. Many times we're siloed in our own individual states, but events like this really get you out and meeting other people."

— Richard Cheng
Attorney, Ritter Spencer-Cheng PLLC

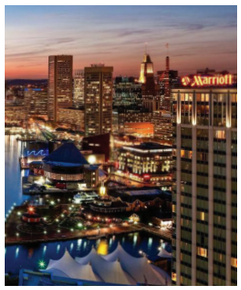

Institute on Medicare and Medicaid Payment Issues

March 31–April 2, 2027 | Baltimore, MD

The AHLA Medicare and Medicaid Institute is the country's premier legal education opportunity relating to federal health care payment programs.

Walk away with new strategies and solutions relating to:

- Medicare and Medicaid basics, program changes, audits, appeals, and litigation
- Fraud and abuse enforcement trends and compliance strategies
- Coding, billing, and reporting requirements
- Considerations for contracting, including provider transactions and value-based care arrangements
- Compliance issues relating to particular providers, settings, and types of care
- Waivers and preemption
- And much more

Registration Details

Early Registration Saving | Register by March 2, 2027 to save $200.

Continuing Education Credits | CLE, CCB, and CPE credits will be available.

Baltimore Marriott Waterfront

americanhealthlaw.org/MMI

Long Term and Post-Acute Care Law and Compliance

March 31–April 2, 2027 | Baltimore, MD

This conference is designed to meet the needs of individuals who work among a wide range of care settings, including home health, rehabilitation, assisted living, nursing, and hospice. In addition to payment and reimbursement, sessions cover compliance and enforcement activity, challenges related to staffing, patient care concerns and implications, financing and transactions trends, and more.

americanhealthlaw.org/LTC

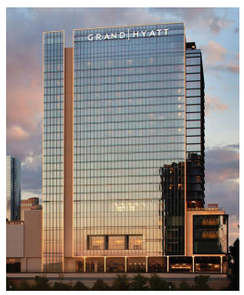

Health Care Transactions

April 26–28, 2027 | Nashville, TN

This conference delivers insight regarding business and legal issues in contemporary health care business transactions, including antitrust considerations, M&A trends, financing techniques, deal risk management strategies, and more.

Presenters will address legal and business considerations, such as:

- Develop knowledge surrounding current developments, strategies, and deal forecasts
- Gain insight into the legal issues involving health care business transactions, including emerging care models, M&A trends, deal risk management strategies, and more
- Learn critical business considerations before, during, and after the transaction
- Receive valuable insights regarding current antitrust considerations
- Understand how financial techniques can strengthen your client's business model actions

Registration Details

Early Registration Saving | Register by March 29, 2027 to save $200.

Continuing Education Credits | CLE, CCB, and CPE credits will be available.

Grand Hyatt Nashville

americanhealthlaw.org/HCT

Build Your Reference Shelf: AHLA Publications

Lexis Catalog
Browse the catalog to review our substantial member discounts.

In-Person Conferences

Mark Your Calendar!

Annual Meeting
& In-House Counsel Program

June 27-30, 2027 | Chicago, IL

The AHLA Annual Meeting is our premier health law education and networking event. This multi-day program provides expert, up-to-the-minute analysis of legal, regulatory, and operational challenges facing a wide range of health care stakeholders.

Stay Current on Emerging Issues and Trends

Design your own personal curriculum from over 40 hours of programming curated by a committee of health law peers.

The Annual Meeting offers sessions covering a variety of topics, such as:

- The diligently researched Health Law Year in Review
- Fraud and abuse enforcement trends, compliance strategies, and emerging issues
- The latest on health care transactions, including proven strategies and evolving models
- Payment and reimbursement issues, such as mental health parity, drug pricing, and value-based arrangements
- Technology risks and opportunities such as artificial intelligence, clinical decision support tools, and data privacy
- Employment issues such as non-competes, executive compensation, and DEI strategies

In-House Counsel Program

June 27, 2027 | Chicago, IL

The AHLA In-House Counsel Program brings together health care legal department counsel for collegial conversations focused on finding practical solutions to today's real challenges. Moderated discussions offer attendees the opportunity to benefit from the presenters' lessons learned, as well as to ask questions tailored to their immediate needs.

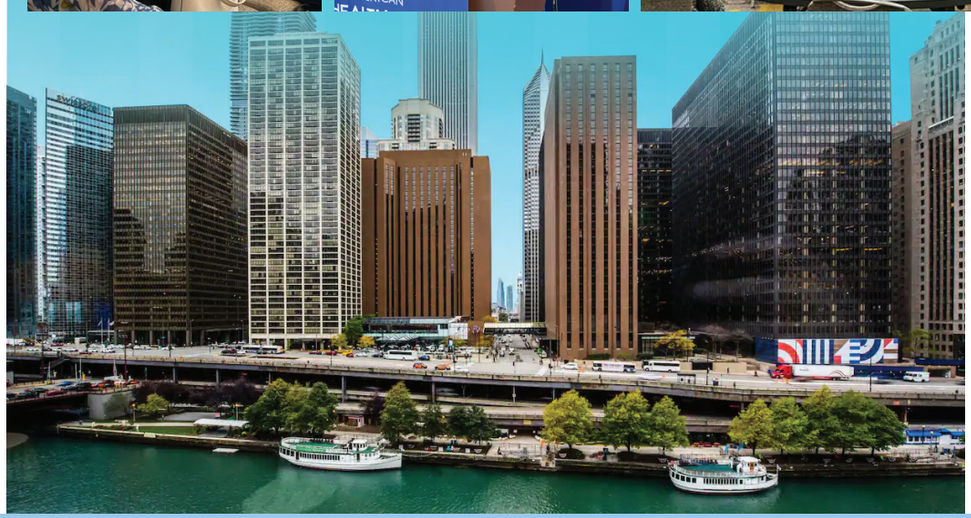

Hyatt Regency Chicago

Prime Downtown Location | Situated on the Chicago Riverwalk, steps from the Loop's top law firms, government offices, and the heart of the city's financial and legal corridors

World-Class Dining & Entertainment | Acclaimed restaurants, rooftop bars, and the iconic Chicago theater district all within easy walking distance

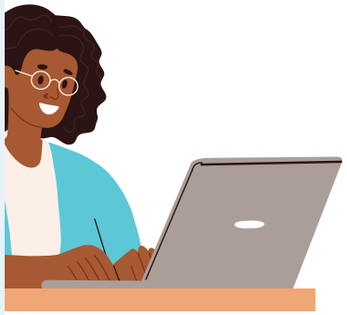

Cultural Access | Minutes from Millennium Park, the Art Institute of Chicago, Navy Pier, and the shores of Lake Michigan

americanhealthlaw.org/Annual Meeting

Earn CLE Credits from Your Home or Office

All-Access Pass to Live Webinars With Comprehensive Membership
AHLA Comprehensive members can attend all live webinars for free. Choose from a variety of topics to earn CLE, CCB, and CPE and engage with leaders in real time online.

Receive on-demand session recordings with your virtual registration.

Virtual Conferences

AHLA Virtual Conferences offer synchronous online learning that allow attendees to engage with speakers and ask questions remotely, while earning credit. Check online for more information on registration and credit.

NEW! Antitrust in Health Care
October 7–8, 2027 | Virtual

Antitrust enforcement in health care is evolving rapidly—bringing heightened scrutiny to mergers, collaborations, pricing, labor practices, and the growing role of AI and data. This virtual conference delivers timely insights from leading practitioners and regulators on the most pressing antitrust risks facing health care organizations today.

Through practical, real-world guidance and case-based discussions, attendees will gain a clearer understanding of current enforcement trends, compliance expectations, and how to navigate complex transactions and partnerships in an increasingly aggressive regulatory environment.

americanhealthlaw.org/Antitrust

Health Care Arbitration Training
December 7–10, 2026 &
May 10–13, 2027 | Virtual

Health care attorneys are progressively turning to arbitration to serve their clients and improve their practice. This engaging, interactive program imparts the substantive knowledge and skills needed to arbitrate health law cases effectively. Attendance at this program will qualify you to serve as an arbitrator for AHLA's Dispute Resolution.

americanhealthlaw.org/ArbitrationTraining

In-House Counsel Training
January 20–22, 2027 | Virtual

This three-day, fully virtual program designed for attorneys who are new to the in-house counsel role or considering a transition into one. This highly engaging, practical, and interactive training will help participants understand the unique demands, opportunities, and skill sets required for success in this career path.

americanhealthlaw.org/IHCTraining

Additional Virtual Attendance Options

Several AHLA conferences offer both in-person OR virtual attendance options. The following programs are described in detail on the In-Person Conferences page, where you can review full session information and registration options:

- Fraud and Compliance Forum |
  September 23–24, 2026 | Washington, DC & Virtual
- Advising Providers: Legal Strategies for AMCs, Physicians, and Hospitals |
  February 22–24, 2027 | Las Vegas, NV & Virtual
- The Complexities of AI in Health Care |
  February 22–24, 2027 | Las Vegas, NV & Virtual

"[AHLA] is authoritative, because you're dealing with folks who are working in this space every day. And I love that there's a lot of different ways to get access to educational material and information. There's webinars. There's live in person events... All of that gives you a lot of vehicles to learn and we need that—health care is always changing."

— John Kelly
Attorney and Partner, Barnes & Thornburg

On-Demand Learning

"Health care is one of the most regulated industries in the world. Having colleagues come to the table with lawyers, with compliance officers, accountants, and executives really rounds out what we're trying to do at the end of the day."

— Tim Adelman
Chief Legal Officer, Luminis Health

On-Demand ePrograms

Recorded from AHLA in-person conferences, ePrograms offer 360-degree views into a wide variety of health law practice areas. Access professionally edited video, slides, and supplemental materials. Hear from leading experts and earn CLE and CCB.

- Fraud and Compliance
- Fundamentals of Health Law
- Tax Issues for Health Care
- Advising Providers
- AI in Health Care
- Annual Meeting
- Health Care Transactions
- Health Plan and Managed Care Law Institute
- In-House Counsel
- Long Term and Post-Acute Care
- Medicare and Medicaid
- And More!

americanhealthlaw.org/On-Demand

AHLA 101 Courses

These self-paced online courses provide foundational legal training with practical application, on demand and with self-study CLE. In each module, you'll click through concise explanations and examples and watch microvideos in which experienced attorneys share their personal insights. Self-assessments are included throughout the course to keep you engaged and on track.

- Antitrust in Health Care 101
- Fraud and Abuse Investigations 101
- Behavioral Health and Compliance 101
- Medicare 101
- Medical Coding 101
- The Health Care Claim Life Cycle 101

americanhealthlaw.org/101Courses

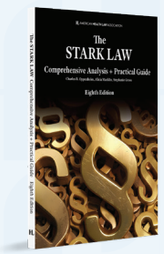

"This is how I learned what health law was, this is where I learned what it meant to be a health care attorney—what it meant to be doing this work in a client, service, forward way.... You can learn a lot of things you can do in your firm, outside of your firm, in broader spaces, and in broader categories."

— Vonne Jacobs
Creating Equity, PLLC

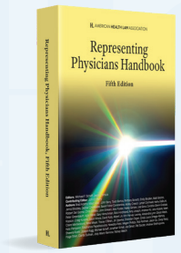

Build Your Reference Shelf: AHLA Publications

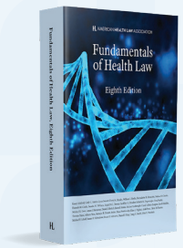

Lexis Catalog
Browse the catalog to review our substantial member discounts.

The Stark Law
Eighth Edition

Representing Physicians
Fifth Edition

Fundamentals of Health Law
Eighth Edition

AHLA's Guide to Health Care Legal Forms, Agreements, and Policies

AMERICAN
HEALTH LAW
ASSOCIATION

1099 14th Street, NW, Suite 925
Washington, DC 20005-3419
P: (202) 833-1100

americanhealthlaw.org

Gain a competitive edge.

americanhealthlaw.org/Education

2026-2027 Health Law Education

In-Person | Virtual | On-Demand

AHLA delivers authoritative education across formats, practice areas, and schedules — designed to meet the demands of busy health law professionals.

- Antitrust in Health Care
- AI in Health Care
- Health Care Transactions
- Medicare and Medicare Payment Issues
- And more—see inside for details!

Save $50 on In-Person Conference Registration

Use code MEETING27 by April 30, 2027