

RECOGNITION OF 2021 FELLOWS

Elisabeth Belmont

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Elisabeth Belmont is corporate counsel at MaineHealth in Portland, Maine. She has significant experience corporate organization and governance, hospital-physician relationships, patient care and consent issues, and information technology acquisition and licensing. Elisabeth is a member of the Board on Health Care Services of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academies. She co-chairs the National Quality Forum's Health IT Patient Safety Measures Standing Committee. Additionally, Ms. Belmont serves as a member of the Editorial Advisory Board of Bloomberg BNA's Health Law Reporter. She is the recipient of numerous honors, including being named by Modern Healthcare as 1 of the 2007 Top 25 Most Powerful Women in Healthcare. She is a nationally recognized author and lecturer on a myriad of health law topics.

AHLA ACHIEVEMENTS

Elisabeth Belmont joined AHLA in 2000. She served as President of the Board of Directors as well as chaired the Executive Committee, Nominating Committee, Health Information and Technology Practice Group, and In-House Counsel Program Planning Committee. Elisabeth has served as an author for the Journal of Health & Life Sciences Law Volumes 4 and 10, The ACO Handbook: A Guide to Accountable Care Organizations first and second editions, as well as AHLA Connections Magazine. She has been a regular speaker on numerous In-House Counsel Programs. She received the David J. Greenburg Service Award in 2014.

John R. Holdenried

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

John Holdenried is a Partner at Baird Holm LLP in Omaha, Nebraska. His provides a full range of health law services to healthcare providers, with a concentration on regulatory, transactional, and contracting issues; managed care contracting and network formation; tax exemption; and corporate compliance issues, including reimbursement, tax, Stark, and fraud and abuse. He is an Emeritus member of the IRS Council for Tax Exempt and Governmental Entities-Great Lakes Region. Since 1991, John has been selected by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® in the field of Health Care Law. John has also been named in Chambers USA and Great Plains Super Lawyers since 2007 for his work in Health Care Law.

AHLA ACHIEVEMENTS

John Holdenried joined AHLA in 1985. He served as the Secretary of the AHLA Board of Directors and was a Member of the Executive and Finance Committees. He served as Chair of the Tax Issues for Healthcare Organizations Program Planning Committee and was Vice Chair of the Tax and Finance Practice Group. He has authored for The Journal of Health & Life Sciences Law and Representing Hospitals and Health Systems. He has spoken at AHLA's programs, including at the Annual Meeting and the Tax Issues for Health Care Organizations.

William "Bill" W. Horton

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Bill Horton is a partner in the Corporate Practice Group at Jones Walker. He co-chairs the firm's Healthcare Industry Team and currently serves as head of the firm's Birmingham, Alabama office. He represents healthcare clients around the country on major transactions, compliance, and governance issues. Bill maintains a national practice representing healthcare providers and other business enterprises in mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures, securities and corporate finance law, regulatory compliance, and corporate governance matters. Prior to joining Jones Walker, Bill was a practice group leader at two other Birmingham-based law firms and served as general counsel of one of the nation's largest publicly traded healthcare providers.

AHLA ACHIEVEMENTS

Bill Horton joined AHLA in 1991. He was Chair of the Business Law and Governance Practice Group, Vice Chair of Publications of the In-House Counsel Practice Group, Member of the Dispute Resolution Service Council, and Co-Chair of the In-House Counsel Program Planning Committee. He has spoken frequently at Fundamentals of Health Law, Fraud and Compliance Forum, Annual Meeting, and several other AHLA programs. He has authored several editions for AHLA's Federal Health Care Laws & Regulations.

Charlene L. McGinty

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Charlene McGinty is Partner at BakerHostetler in Atlanta GA. She represents healthcare providers and companies in the areas of health law and regulatory compliance, including transactional and operational work. She also acts as outside general counsel for physicians and physician organizations. Charlene writes and lectures on a wide scope of health law issues for organizations such as Georgia Academy of Healthcare Attorneys, the Southeastern Health Care Fraud Institute, and the Health Law Section of the State Bar of Georgia. Her publications and speeches focus on topics affecting facilities and providers. She is listed as one of The Best Lawyers in America® for Georgia: Health Care Law and was a Georgia "Super Lawyer." She has also been listed in Chambers USA: Healthcare in Georgia.

AHLA ACHIEVEMENTS

Charlene McGinty joined AHLA in 2000. She served on the Board of Directors and was Chair of the Practice Groups Committee, Liaison to the Programs Committee and Diversity and Inclusion Council, and Member to the Practice Groups Committee, Medicare Part D Task Force, Public Interest Committee. She has Chaired the Annual Meeting Program Planning Committee, Physicians and Physician Organizations Law Institute Program Planning Committee, Programs Committee. She was Chair of the Physician Organizations Practice Group. She has spoken on numerous AHLA meeting such as Annual Meeting, Fraud and Compliance Forum, and Physicians and Physician Organizations Law Institute. She has authored for The ACO Handbook: A Guide to Accountable Care Organizations.

Kristen B. Rosati

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Kristen Rosati is a Partner at Coppersmith Brockelman in Phoenix AZ. She is considered one of the nation's leading "Big Data" and HIPAA compliance attorneys. She also has deep experience in data breaches, health information exchange, data sharing for research and clinical integration initiatives, clinical research compliance, and biobanking and genomic privacy. She is a member of the Arizona State University Health Futures Council, which convenes leaders from across the country to guide the university's health-related research, education and clinical programs. She is highly accomplished receiving such awards as Best Lawyers, Phoenix Health Care Law "Lawyer of the Year," and The Best Lawyers in America®: Health Care.

AHLA ACHIEVEMENTS

Kristen Rosati joined AHLA in 1998. She served as President of the Board of Directors. She was Chair of the Executive, Nominating, Programs, Finance, and Professional Resources Committees. She served as Member of the Diversity Council, Governance Advisory Council, Practice groups Committee, and Quality Council. She has Chaired the Programs Committee and Annual Meeting Program Planning Committee and was a Member of the Academic Medical Centers and Teaching Hospitals Program. She has spoken at the Annual Meeting, Academic Medical Centers and Teaching Hospitals Institute, and Physicians and Hospitals Law Institute. She has authored for Fundamentals of Health Law, Seventh Edition, Representing Hospitals and Health Systems, and the Journal of Health & Life Sciences Law.

Paul W. Shaw

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Paul Shaw is a Partner at Verrill Dana in Boston MA. He has a national health care fraud and abuse practice and represents health care clients involved in criminal and civil fraud and abuse investigations brought by federal and state government agencies in Massachusetts and throughout the United States. He has acted as counsel to several organizations including the Massachusetts Medical Society, The New England Journal of Medicine, the New England Medical Equipment Dealers Association, and the Massachusetts Home Care Association. He is Consistently recognized in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business under Healthcare and Listed in The Best Lawyers in America® under Health Care Law.

AHLA ACHIEVEMENTS

Paul Shaw joined AHLA in 2000. He served on the Journal of Health & Life Sciences Law Editorial Board, has authored editions of AHLA Federal Health Care Laws and Regulations, Fraud & Abuse Investigations Handbook for the Healthcare Industry, Best Practices Handbook for Advising Clients on Fraud and Abuse Issues, and the Journal of Health & Life Sciences Law.

Lisa D. Taylor

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Lisa Taylor is a founding partner of Inglesino, Webster, Wyciskala & Taylor in Parsippany NJ. She concentrates in health care law, business transactions, employment and immigration issues, regulatory matters and litigation and represents professionals in disciplinary matters. Additionally, she serves as a neutral arbitrator and mediator and as an expert witness in health care disputes and professional proceedings. Ms. Taylor served two non-consecutive terms as the Chair of the New Jersey State Bar Association Health Law Section and was a member of the Section's Board of Directors for twenty years before transitioning to the Section's Emeritus Board in 2019. Ms. Taylor is listed in Best Lawyers In America, Who's Who in the World, Who's Who in America, Who's Who in American Law, is rated "AV" by Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory and has been repeatedly named one of the Top 50 Female New Jersey Super Lawyers and Top 100 New Jersey Super Lawyers.

AHLA ACHIEVEMENTS

Lisa Taylor joined AHLA in 2000. She served as a member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Task Force, Vice Chair to Strategic Planning and Special Projects, Business Law and Governance Practice Group, Publications, Business Law and Governance Practice Group, Physician Organizations Practice Group. and Educational Programs Program. She is a frequent author and speaker for the Association.