

Launch Your Health Law Career With AHLA

Student Membership Benefits

Real World, Practical Analysis that Complements Your Education

Join nearly 12,000 members and over 25,000 engaged health law professionals who are ready to position you for success.

Exclusive Educational Resources

Stay ahead with cutting-edge health law content:

- ▶ Daily summaries of current health law news from major media outlets
- ▶ Weekly digest of the most important health law developments
- ▶ Bi-monthly magazine with in-depth legal analyses by AHLA members.

Career-Building Opportunities

AHLA Mentorship Program

Connect with experienced health law professionals who can guide your career development and provide invaluable industry insights through meaningful professional relationships.

Health Law Network

Join AHLA's online communities including the main Health Law Topical Community and specialized networks (including an Early Career Professionals and Students Community) to engage with peers and professionals in the health law field.

AHLA Career Center

Access exclusive job postings and career resources specifically tailored to health law positions in hospitals, law firms, government agencies, and other settings.

Internships, Externships, and Scholarships

Explore hands-on learning opportunities through internships and externships; participate in Writing Competitions; and learn about financial support through the Michael F. Anthony Health Law Scholarship.

Member Perks

- ▶ Discounted rates on AHLA's year-round conferences covering latest developments not addressed in the classroom
- ▶ Virtual networking events with industry professionals
- ▶ Hundreds of volunteer opportunities to gain expertise and grow professionally

FREE Student Membership

Available for up to three years while in active student status

Ready to kickstart your health law career?

www.americanhealthlaw.org/students