

Tynan Kugler, MBA/MPH, CVA is a principal at PYA and serves a variety of healthcare clients in the areas of valuation, compliance, and related consulting services including fair market value and commercial reasonableness analyses, provider compensation planning and design, and provider needs assessments. Specific areas of expertise include oncology and arrangements within the life sciences industry including key opinion leader compensation design and valuation. She is a member of the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts, American Health Law Association, Association of Healthcare Internal Auditors, and the American Association of Provider Compensation Professionals.