PRESENTERS

Caroline Burgunder is an Assistant U.S. Attorney and Chief of the Eastern District of Michigan's Affirmative Litigation Unit, which investigates and prosecutes significant False Claims Act matters spanning various subject areas, such as health care fraud, procurement fraud, customs/trade fraud, Cares Act fraud, and other frauds committed against federal programs. Prior to joining the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Eastern District of Michigan, Ms. Burgunder served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Central District of California. Throughout her 18-year tenure with the U.S. Department of Justice, she has handled and overseen numerous fraud cases and investigations, many of which implicated Anti-Kickback Statute, Stark Law, upcoding, medical necessity and off-label marketing allegations against entities and individuals.

Prior to entering public service, Ms. Burgunder practiced at the Los Angeles office of Dewey Ballantine LLP, where she litigated large, complex commercial matters on behalf of prominent global and domestic companies.
